

Complete a post-show survey and you could win a trip for two from Road Scholar.

Boston: Birthplace of American Liberty (Six days, five nights, with hotel accommodations and 13 meals included)

What better place to commemorate America's 250th birthday in 2026 than Boston, where the dream of independence first took root? Walk in the footsteps of Samuel Adams, John Hancock, and Paul Revere along the Freedom Trail. Led by expert instructors, discover the city's revolutionary spirit through visits to historic treasures like Faneuil Hall and Bunker Hill, where America's story began.

How to Enter:

1. Complete the post show survey at the NHPBS table in Governor's Hall using the QR code provided or by completing a paper survey.

Additional Conditions

The Grand Prize is non-transferable and cannot be redeemed for cash, except that the winner may elect to receive the value of their prize in the form of a voucher to apply to a different Road Scholar program. Road Scholar reserves the right to substitute a Grand Prize with an item of equal or greater value in the event that Grand Prize program becomes unavailable for any reason. Please note that trip details are subject to change. The prize winner and their travel companion must travel together on the same itinerary and are solely responsible for obtaining all necessary travel documents, including valid passports. Reservations must be booked at least one hundred twenty (120) days prior to departure directly through a Road Scholar representative and cannot be combined with any other external offers. The actual value of the trip may fluctuate based on travel dates, space, and availability; any difference between the actual value and the stated prize value will not be compensated in cash or voucher. Participation is contingent upon the winner's agreement to Road Scholar's comprehensive Terms and Conditions, found at <https://www.roadscholar.org/Terms-Conditions/>. Should the winner cancel after confirming reservations, the prize will be forfeited without substitution or credit. The winner may also be responsible for departure fees, as well as federal, state, and/or local taxes, fees, and surcharges due at the time of reservation. The trip does not include the optional Road Scholar trip protection plan and is not eligible. Optional external trip protection plans, room supplements, incidentals, passenger tariffs or duties, airline fees, surcharges, airport fees, service or facility charges, personal expenses (e.g., alcoholic beverages, spa services, internet usage), security fees, additional costs for flights from non-gateway airports, business class upgrades, and any other add-ons, all of which must be covered by the travelers. Any modifications made to the reservation after booking will be at the participant's expense and participant can only rebook once. Should a Participant elect to travel solo, any remaining value of a promotional giveaway or credit designated for a second participant shall be forfeited. Furthermore, the provision of solo accommodation for the selected Program shall be subject to the sole discretion and available inventory of Road Scholar.
