SCHOOL: _____

01	Billie Eilish, Paul McCartney, Duran Duran, Adele and Sam Smith have all written and performed songs for this film franchise, which began in 1962.	James Bond films
02	Composers Marvin Hamlisch and Richard Rodgers are the only two people to have achieved PEGOT status, winning an Emmy, Grammy, Oscar and Tony, along with this prestigious award.	Pulitzer Prize
03	Before taking to the skies, the Wright brothers operated a shop in Dayton, Ohio, where they repaired and sold this popular mode of transportation.	Bicycles
04	While attending college, journalist Anderson Cooper spent two summers interning for this U.S. government agency responsible for collecting and analyzing intelligence from around the world.	CIA, Central Intelligence Agency
05	This object accounts for approximately 99.86 percent of the total mass of our solar system.	The Sun
06	In 1521, Martin Luther was declared an outlaw and his writings were banned by this assembly of the Holy Roman Empire.	Diet of Worms
07	This Shakespeare play featuring Iago, Cassio and Desdemona gave composer Edward Elgar the title of one of his most famous works, "Pomp and Circumstance," from a reflective speech by its title character in Act III.	Othello
08	This president was acquitted in his impeachment trial by a single vote. The Senate voted 35–19 to convict him, one vote short of the 36 needed for conviction. New Hampshire's two U.S. senators, James W. Patterson and Aaron H. Cragin, both voted to convict.	Andrew Johnson
09	Approximately 55 percent of your blood consists of this pale-yellow liquid, which transports nutrients, hormones, waste products and blood cells throughout the body.	Plasma
10	The cover of this Beatles album features Edgar Allan Poe, Lenny Bruce, Carl Jung, Fred Astaire, Bob Dylan and Marilyn Monroe, among many other celebrities and historical figures.	Sgt. Pepper's Lonely Hearts Club Band
11	In the 1939 film adaptation of this children's novel, Miss Gulch rides a bicycle with a Cairn Terrier in a basket.	The Wizard of Oz
12	This photographer's most famous image is Migrant Mother, Nipomo, California, taken in 1936.	Dorothea Lange
13	This Argentine-born revolutionary, whose image became an international symbol of rebellion and appeared on many T-shirts, helped Fidel Castro overthrow the Cuban government of Fulgencio Batista.	Che Guevara
14	On May 26, 1647, Alse Young of Windsor, Connecticut, became the first person in the American colonies on record to be executed for this crime.	Witchcraft
15	What type of chemical bond forms when atoms share one or more pairs of electrons?	Covalent bond
16	What is 4:00 p.m. expressed as using a 24-hour clock?	1600 hours

SCHOOL: _____

17	First published in France in 2000, this autobiographical graphic novel by Iranian-born author Marjane Satrapi recounts her childhood in Tehran during the Islamic Revolution and the Iran-Iraq War.	Persepolis
18	This Pakistani activist was only 17 when she became the youngest Nobel Peace Prize laureate in 2014 for advocating for girls' education.	Malala Yousafzai
19	Before becoming a full series, 48 animated short films depicting this family aired on The Tracey Ullman Show on Fox.	The Simpsons
20	This could be the name of an 18th-century British agriculturalist who developed an early mechanical seed drill or a British rock band led by flautist Ian Anderson, known for the songs "Aqualung" and "Thick as a Brick."	Jethro Tull
21	This 1915 novella by Franz Kafka tells the story of traveling salesman Gregor Samsa, who awakens one morning to discover that he has been transformed into a monstrous, insect-like creature.	The Metamorphosis
22	This active volcano on Heard Island in the southern Indian Ocean shares its name with the famous bell in London's Elizabeth Tower.	Big Ben
23	This musical instrument is depicted on the trophy presented annually to winners of the Grammy Awards.	Gramophone
24	On May 29, 1790, this state became the last of the original 13 states to ratify the U.S. Constitution.	Rhode Island
25	This bay, located between New Brunswick and Nova Scotia in Canada, experiences some of the highest tides in the world.	Bay of Fundy
26	This Canadian-born singer-songwriter, known for the songs "Big Yellow Taxi," "A Case of You" and "Both Sides Now," became a U.S. citizen in 2026.	Joni Mitchell
27	Prior to the ratification of this amendment to the U.S. Constitution in 1913, U.S. senators were selected by state legislatures rather than directly elected by voters.	17th Amendment
28	In 1665, this English scientist published observations of tiny compartments in cork viewed under a microscope, coining the term "cells" to describe them.	Robert Hooke
29	From the Latin for "to play upon," this literary device refers to an indirect reference to another work of literature, historical event or cultural figure.	Allusion
30	In 1812, this president asked the U.S. Congress to declare war on the United Kingdom.	James Madison
31	These jewel-encrusted eggs, originally made for the Russian imperial family, were first commissioned by Tsar Alexander III in 1885 as an Easter present for his wife, Maria Feodorovna.	Fabergé eggs

SCHOOL: _____

32	The Patriots are playing a 1 p.m. game at Gillette Stadium, but you are a fan who lives in Los Angeles. What time will the game be on there?	10 a.m.
33	What was the name of the 1920s cultural movement centered in Harlem, New York, that celebrated Black literature, music, art and intellectual achievement?	Harlem Renaissance
34	According to the United Nations, 193 states are parties to the international convention prohibiting the development, production, stockpiling and use of this type of weapon.	Chemical weapons
35	Elton John and Bernie Taupin originally wrote "Candle in the Wind" in 1973 about Marilyn Monroe. In 1997, the song was rewritten to honor this woman following her death.	Princess Diana
36	In 455, this East Germanic tribe, under the leadership of Gaiseric, entered Rome and sacked the city.	Vandals
37	Launched on June 1, 1980, this became the world's first 24-hour television news network. Its first major news story covered the attempted assassination of civil rights leader Vernon Jordan.	CNN
38	This could represent 4,000 in additive Roman numerals or what you might say after eating some delicious ice cream.	MMMM
39	In New Hampshire, this dime-sized the state butterfly is found only in the Concord Pine Barrens, where its caterpillars feed on wild blue lupine.	Karner Blue
40	In Roald Dahl's 1982 novel The BFG, these revolting, cucumber-like vegetables are the only food the Big Friendly Giant can find to eat in Giant Country.	Snozzcumbers
41	In 1932, Hattie Ophelia Wyatt Caraway became the first woman elected to the U.S. Senate in her own right. What state did she represent?	Arkansas
42	In 1947, this U.S. Air Force test pilot became the first person to fly faster than the speed of sound in level flight.	Chuck Yeager
43	At a depth of over 36,000 feet, the Mariana Trench contains the deepest known point in this or any ocean on Earth.	Pacific Ocean
44	In flowering plants, the stamen is the male reproductive part of the flower. What is the name of the structure at the tip of the stamen that produces and releases pollen?	Anther
45	Known as the Queen of Soul, this singer recorded such hits as "Respect," "(You Make Me Feel Like) A Natural Woman" and "Think."	Aretha Franklin
46	During World War II, this British mathematician and computer scientist helped crack Germany's Enigma code. Considered a pioneer of modern computing, he also proposed a test to evaluate whether a machine could exhibit intelligent behavior.	Alan Turing
47	Set in the fictional town of Hawkins, Indiana, this Netflix series features a mysterious alternate dimension known as the Upside Down.	Stranger Things

SCHOOL: _____

48	In 1981, this video game featuring a simian, along with Mario and his girlfriend Pauline, made its U.S. debut.	Donkey Kong
49	This Japanese filmmaker directed Seven Samurai, Rashomon and Ikiru, and is widely considered one of the most influential directors in cinema history.	Akira Kurosawa
50	A seesaw, a crowbar and a pair of scissors are all examples of this type of simple machine, which rotates around a fixed point called a fulcrum.	Lever
51	The U.S. Census is mandated by Article I, Section 2 of the Constitution. The first census, conducted in 1790, recorded a population of approximately four million. The 2020 census recorded approximately 332 million. In what year will the next census be conducted?	2030
52	In medieval England, three grains of barley, laid end to end, were used to define this unit of measure.	Inch
53	This carnivorous mammal, a member of the weasel family, is the namesake mascot of a New Hampshire Minor League Baseball team.	Fisher
54	This word completes the proverb "_____ comes before a fall" and is also the first word in the title of a famous Jane Austen novel.	Pride
55	Homer's epic poem The Odyssey recounts the ten-year journey of Odysseus as he attempts to return home after this war.	Trojan War
56	In 1955, this teenager refused to give up her seat on a segregated bus in Montgomery, Alabama, nine months before Rosa Parks' famous act of resistance.	Claudette Colvin
57	The pitch of a sound is determined by its frequency. What unit of measurement is used to measure frequency?	Hertz
58	This musical instrument typically has more than 200 strings.	Piano
59	This number is both the smallest prime number and the only even prime number.	2
60	This Portuguese prince, whose patronage helped launch Portugal's exploration during the Age of Discovery, is better known by this descriptive name.	Prince Henry the Navigator
61	This nursery rhyme king is known for calling for his pipe, his bowl and his fiddlers three.	Old King Cole
62	This positive integer is the square root of 225.	15
63	What do you call the point in an object's orbit where it is farthest from the Sun?	Aphelion
64	Tennessee and Missouri each share a border with eight other states, more than any other state. Which two states share borders with no other states?	Alaska and Hawaii
65	This is the name for the lowest possible thermodynamic temperature, at which a system has its minimum thermal energy.	Absolute zero

SCHOOL: _____

66	In computing, this acronym describes a user interface in which the content displayed on screen during editing closely resembles how it will appear in its final form.	WYSIWYG
67	In a C.S. Lewis novel, the Pevensie children discover the magical land of Narnia by passing through what piece of furniture?	A wardrobe
68	When the United States entered World War I in 1917, how many stars appeared on the U.S. flag?	48
69	Created by artist Bob Kane and writer Bill Finger, this DC Comics superhero is the secret identity of billionaire Bruce Wayne.	Batman
70	This nursery rhyme, written by Newport, New Hampshire, native Sarah Josepha Hale, was recited by Thomas Edison in the first successful recording made on his newly invented phonograph in 1877.	Mary Had a Little Lamb
71	The chemical symbol for this element is Pb, derived from its Latin name, plumbum. This Latin word is also the origin of the English word plumber.	Lead
72	Approximately 65 percent of the human body's mass is made up of this chemical element.	Oxygen
73	Stock car driver Kyle Petty is the son of this driver, often referred to as "The King."	Richard Petty
74	What is the full official name of this New England state, which includes the word Commonwealth?	Commonwealth of Massachusetts
75	Completed in 1885, the 10-story Home Insurance Building built in this city following a devastating fire, is widely considered the world's first modern skyscraper.	Chicago
76	In what novel by Robert Louis Stevenson will you find a parrot named Captain Flint?	Treasure Island
77	Who said, "I know I have the body of a weak and feeble woman, but I have the heart and stomach of a king, and of a king of England too"?	Queen Elizabeth I
78	Founded by Greek colonists as Byzantium and renamed Constantinople by Roman Emperor Constantine the Great in the fourth century, this city straddles Europe and Asia along the Bosporus Strait.	Istanbul
79	In 2026, CBS News named the Crosby, Stills & Nash song "Teach Your Children" one of 250 essential American songs of the past 250 years. The song features this Grateful Dead guitarist and singer on pedal steel guitar.	Jerry Garcia
80	Yeasts, mushrooms and molds all belong to this biological kingdom.	Fungi
81	What nursery rhyme character was destroyed after falling off a wall?	Humpty Dumpty
82	The Seminole Tribe of Florida primarily resides in this U.S. state.	Florida

SCHOOL: _____

83	The legend of the Pied Piper of Hamelin tells of a mysterious musician who lured rats and later children out of the town. In what modern-day country is the town of Hamelin located?	Germany
84	If you go to Heather Street in Manchester, New Hampshire, you will find the Zimmerman House and the Kalil House, both designed by this influential American architect.	Frank Lloyd Wright
85	Most of the known moons of this planet are named after characters in the works of William Shakespeare and Alexander Pope, including Puck, Juliet and Desdemona.	Uranus
86	What are the lines connecting points of equal atmospheric pressure on a weather map called?	Isobars
87	In movies and video games, hidden jokes or secret references are often called this holiday-related term.	Easter eggs
88	In the nursery rhyme, who sat on a tuffet and what was she eating?	Little Miss Muffet; curds and whey
89	Built high in the Andes Mountains during the 15th century, this ancient citadel in present-day Peru was constructed by the Inca civilization.	Machu Picchu
90	In 1964, British chemist Dorothy Crowfoot Hodgkin won the Nobel Prize in Chemistry for determining the structure of this vitamin, which is essential for red blood cell formation, neurological function and DNA synthesis.	Vitamin B12
91	Built in the 12th century, this vast temple complex in present-day Cambodia was originally dedicated to the Hindu god Vishnu before gradually becoming an important Buddhist religious site.	Angkor Wat
92	Introduced in 1946 by Abe Bookman, this fortune-telling toy features a 20-sided die floating in liquid.	Magic 8 Ball
93	Five basic positions form the foundation of this form of tyle of dance.	Ballet
94	Written by Julia Donaldson and illustrated by Axel Scheffler, this 1999 children's book features a clever mouse who invents a frightening creature to scare away predators, only to encounter the creature he imagined.	The Gruffalo
95	This day of the week is named for the Norse god of thunder.	Thursday
96	Serving as British prime minister during most of World War II, this leader famously declared, "We shall never surrender."	Winston Churchill
97	Mashed Potato, Watusi, Sprinkler, Bump, Funky Chicken and Frug are all types of this.	Dance
98	In Jules Verne's novel Around the World in Eighty Days, this character wagers that he can travel around the world in just 80 days.	Phileas Fogg
99	Beginning with the words "We the People," this document established the framework of the United States federal government.	U.S. Constitution
100	How many counties are there in New Hampshire?	10

SCHOOL: _____