VARIETY IS THE SPICE OF PROGRAMMING

When we were all working at the station, often times you would find Hazel Molin's office door slightly ajar, the faint glow of lights flickering off the wall and muffled voices coming from inside. Hazel is at work and watching television. Watching television at work? YES!

Hinterland

Hazel is the Manager of Broadcast Content. She's the one who is responsible for scheduling NHPBS' five channels. She deals primarily with NHPBS, NHPBS Explore, but also with Create, World and PBS Kids 24/7 channels. Since 2011, when NHPBS lost all of its state funding, Hazel has worked alongside WGBH programmers to acquire programs at discounted rates and to bounce scheduling ideas off of them. "I screen and curate programs from a variety of sources, including several national distributors and local independent producers," says Hazel. Now that is a lot of TV!

Hazel's love of public television developed when she was a student at the University of New Hampshire. She recalls watching plenty of Masterpiece Theatre with her aunt and uncle. "On my college vacations, I watched several series with them — I, CLAUDIUS, THE FLAME TREES OF THIKA and many others." She landed a support job in the programming department at Channel 11, grew into creating the broadcast logs, which account for every second of the broadcast day, and was promoted to her current position in 2000.

For over 30 years now, Hazel has been working with and scheduling programs at NHPBS. She's considered a superhero in the PBS programmers world. She can calculate time in her head, she can recall obscure programming details in the middle of a meeting, and her attention to detail is second to none.

On the homefront, she's a devoted grandmother, she can bake a fierce Christmas stollen bread, and she has sewn plenty of handmade, treasured baby quilts for family and coworkers. But her true talents lie in how she can pick up on a programming theme from PBS and then localize it to NHPBS. "I'll search the distributor's database for programs that will fit the theme. For example, this month I needed a 30-minute show and remembered KARAMU. It fit nicely between a documentary on racism and leading into a block of summer dramas." Did we mention Hazel has a mind like a steel trap?

National Conventions

Hazel is the number one person that the BritWit Club members want to meet. "They like to hear what is coming up and are very interactive with us about the British programs. I enjoy educating them about programming rights and explaining why you can't just air something from the past."

What's coming this fall? Well, Hazel has a few shows she can share: FRONTLINE - THE CHOICE, the long awaited conclusion of LAST TANGO IN HALIFAX, VAN DER VALK on MASTERPIECE, which is set in Amersterdam and ISLANDS OF WONDER. And don't worry--Hazel has already screened these programs, and she says you're going to love them!

Keepers of the Light FRI August 7 | 8 PM

Witness as a community rallies to save the Gay Head Lighthouse on Martha's Vineyard, Massachusetts. This documentary captures a modern-day effort to move the structure away from the receding cliffside and recounts the 200-year history of the iconic landmark.

Great Performances at the Met: Akhnaten SAT August 15 | 9 PM EXPLORE

Experience composer Philip Glass' visionary masterpiece portraying the impact of the Egyptian Pharaoh Akhnaten as he rises to the throne. Anthony Roth Costanzo stars in the title role. Karen Kamensek conducts.

Second Wind: The Tale of a Sailor SAT August 8 | 6 PM

Follow award-winning nautical photographer Onne van der Wal as he completes a solo, hands-on restoration of a 1972 Pearson 36foot sailboat. The film chronicles Onne's career racing large sailboats and photographing some of sailing's most thrilling moments.

Lucy Worsley's Royal Photo Album SUN August 16 | 8 PM

The camera has been the British Royal Family's confidante, messenger, pursuer and keeper of memories. British historian and host Lucy Worsley explores this complex relationship between the camera and the British Royal Family.

Endeavour Season 7 on Masterpiece SUN August 9 | 9 PM

As Morse rings in the new year – 1970 – at an opera house in Venice, a murder in Oxford puts Thursday on a quest to find the man responsible. Returning home, Morse makes a new acquaintance, and old friendships show signs of strain.

The Kate MON August 17 | Noon EXPLORE

You've got front row seats to watch smart, bold performances from musicians with something to say. The unique roster of performers – all people whom Katharine Hepburn would have found audacious enough to invite for a cocktail - includes folk pop sister trio Joseph.

RACE IN AMERICA

This month, NHPBS is continuing the conversation about the Black experience in America. On Sunday evenings, we are offering programs that highlight historical perspectives that will provide context to the injustices that Black Americans have faced. We will also celebrate their contributions and accomplishments. To learn more, go to nhpbs.org/raceinamerica.

The Central Park Five SUN August 2 | 5 PM

Award-winning filmmaker Ken Burns tells the story of the five black and Latino teenagers from Harlem who were wrongly convicted of raping a white woman in New York City's Central Park in 1989.

POV: Whose Streets? SUN August 9 | 5 PM

When unarmed teenager Michael Brown is killed by police and left lying in the street for hours, it marks a breaking point for St. Louis. Take an unflinching look at the Ferguson uprising, where citizens assert their right to live.

Karamu: 100 Years in the House SUN August 9 | 6:30 PM

The word "Karamu" comes from a Swahili word meaning "a place of joyful gatherings." For the past 100 years, the Karamu House in Cleveland, Ohio - the oldest African-American theater in the United States - has lived up to its name, serving as a community center for the arts and maintaining a legacy of innovation and diversity.

Charlottesville SUN August 16 | 5 PM

Explore the events leading to the tragedies of August 11 and 12, 2017. CHARLOTTESVILLE offers local insight and perspective on the events, prompting us to ask questions about who we are as a people and what we can learn from this experience.
