“And we have numerous first-time donors who are making an impact this year, including at least one celebrity,” said LaRochelle. Fashion-minded bidders will have a chance to bid on a Miu Miu dress that was worn on several occasions by comedian and New Hampshire native Sarah Silverman. Miu Miu is the sister label to Prada and was founded in 1992 by fashion designer Miuccia Prada.

“I bought it to wear at the Emmys when I was nominated for my show I Love You, America,” said Silverman. “Then I wore it to some other things, including the 2024 Vanity Fair Oscars after-party.”

“The dress has always come through for me. I posted several of the different times I’ve worn the dress on the Internet and said it was time to give it to a charity auction,” said Silverman. “NHPBS commented, ‘Are we the charity?’ and that’s when I realized, ‘Yes. Yes, you are!’”

“I’m very happy to support New Hampshire PBS with this lil’ sartorial sacrifice. (I’m pretty sure this makes me a hero?),” said Silverman. “Sure, this dress has seen better days, but hey, she’s got character! Bid high, and together we can help keep NHPBS bringing the quality content I grew up on!”

The chance to snag local treasures and one-of-a-kind pieces starts on May 6th at nhpbs.org/auction.

“[The] auction is a spring tradition for many of our donors and also for our bidders,” said Auction Manager Diane LaRochelle. “We have many long-time donors who make it a point to give back year after year.”

And this year is no different. Bidders have a myriad of local restaurants to choose from as well as a week’s stay at the Mittersill Alpine Resort in Franconia or dinner for two on top of a lighthouse in Newburyport, Massachusetts.
